Recommendations from Council:	Tyler Fry is a Penn State Altoona student in the Criminal Justice Program. He is a life time Blair County resident. Tyler has an interest in the work the coalition is performing. He has also agreed to be a member of the Education committee. He currently participates in an independent study with Dr. Kruis at Penn State. He feels he can bring his strengths of data review to the coalition. He feels an additional strength he brings is the ability to see people's potential and help them reach their goals. He has not conflict of interest noted. Robert Hainley is a retired law enforcement officer. He is recommended for his experience in working in law enforcement and genuine interest in this concern in our community. He had 27 years as an officer , 20 of these year were on the narcotics unit. He has not conflict of interest noted. Action Item: Motion to approve Tyler Frye as a voting member of the partnership for 3 year terms. Action Item: Motion to approve Tyler Frye as a voting member of the partnership for 3 year terms.	Lynn Thompson made a motion to approve the application and forward the request to the governing board for Tyler Frye for a 3 year term.
